R: REDACTED MATERIAL

Doctor Alan Blum

Vocation: Medical Doctor, Editor of the New York State Journal of Medicine.

Born: Rockaway Beach, Queens.

REDACTED

Education: B.A. Amhearst, Amhearst, MA.
M.D., Emory University, Atlanta Ga., 1975

Experience: (In chronological order)
Internship, Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal
Residency and teaching fellowship, University of Miami
Morris Fishbein Fellowship in Medical Journalism, JAMA.
Lecturer, Family Medicine, University of Illinois
Faculty, Department of Family Practice, Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, Illinois
Editor, The Medical Journal of Australia
Editor, The New York State Journal of Medicine, 1983

REDACTED

2001210105

Anti Industry Activities:

Introduced a 1979 AMA resolution that called for all members of the American Medical Association and the Association's Retirement Fund to sell all tobacco industry stocks.

Founded the organization known as DOC -- Doctors Ought to Care, a nationwide network of doctors against smoking.

Organized a picket line in front of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York to protest the sponsorship of the Vatican art show by Philip Morris Inc.

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/fsgm0000